

School of Choice

Does a freshman have to have a “School of Choice” form on file at the high school prior to playing sports at that high school?

Yes, it is recommended that they do. These forms are, typically, due at the high school in February. If a student wants to attend FCHS, he/she should make sure their “School of Choice” form is turned into the school in a timely manner.

