

FCHS Announcements for November 17, 2009

SCHOOL-SPONSORED ACTIVITIES

The 2009 Holiday Gift Concert this year will be a benefit for Mr. Mark Cummings. Tickets are free, but you need to reserve them in advance on the Music Department's webpage. Donations will be collected at the concert.

FCHS Tower Theater presents the second show of the 2009-2010 season: Noises Off by Michael Frayn is playing November 19, 20 & 21 at 7:00 p.m. in the McNeal Theater. This hilarious comedy will set the theater on fire. Tickets are $8.00 general admission, available at the door beginning 6:00 p.m. each night of the performance, or at the FCHS Box Office during 5th and 6th periods, TODAY through Friday.

2nd Annual Coats for Colorado is November 10 through 24. Bring in your gently used or new coats in any size. Drop them off in the Commons.

KLYD's Closet is a new consignment store run by ACE Transitions. It's located off the spine across from the Media Center (in rm. S-11) They'll sell your stuff at the price you choose.

If you are interested in participating in Mock Trial see Ms. Young or Ms. Keogh.

FCHS Model United Nations meets Wednesdays from 3:00 – 4:00 p.m., in room P101. New members are always welcome! See Mrs. Dickens for more info.

Got School Spirit? Join the Boosters Club! We meet at 6:50 a.m. on Tuesday mornings, in room P205.

Check out the latest exhibits in the Lambkin Library: "Banned Books", "Read All About It: Crime Mysteries", "Be Thankful for Books: New Fiction", "New Fiction especially for 9th and 10th graders", "Now Reading: Books into Movies", "Go For Graphic Novels", "Foreign Language Fiction".

For great Lambkin gear visit the online web store at <http://fchs.peapodprint.com>

Join us for an 18 day trip "Down Under": A trip to Australia is being planned for the summer of 2010. Hold koalas and snorkel on the Great Barrier Reef! See Ms. Holmes for more details.

Attention students who drive to school: Vermont Street is now a 2-hour only parking zone. All cars parked on Vermont Street, north of school, must be moved every 2 hours. Parking tickets for violations will be issued by the City of Fort Collins. Also: cars parked in the Pinecone Apartments parking lot will be towed at the car owner's expense.

STUDENT SERVICES

Front Range Community College will hold an application day at FCHS TOMORROW, Tuesday, November 17. Students may apply and be accepted on the spot, take any necessary placement tests, and talk with academic advisors. There is no cost to apply; official transcripts will be provided free of charge. Students will be excused from class to attend—the session generally runs from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Space is limited and advance registration is required. Sign up in the Career Center in Student Services. Contact Mrs. Hostetter with any questions: 488-8111.

Attention Seniors: Please sign up on your counselor's calendar for your required Senior Meeting this fall. You will want to block out 30 minutes for this meeting. Be prepared to discuss what your plans are for this year and beyond. We will cover the college application process, how to use Naviance effectively, and how to research careers.

SPORTS

Any student interested in being a manager for the Boys Basketball season please see Coach Alcaraz in room L202.
