

Final Exam Schedule – 1st Semester - December 2009

IMPORTANT: Final Examinations & Holiday Travel

First semester, 2009 Final Examinations begin Wednesday, December 16, 2009 and conclude Friday, December 18, 2009.

All classes are required to meet during their scheduled times and student attendance is required during examination periods. An examination or culminating semester project is mandatory for every FCHS class. The Final Examination experience is a valuable part of our educational objectives, and finals are an important measurement of student achievement and school accountability. We ask that holiday travel NOT begin until AFTER students have completed their scheduled examinations. Make-up times are listed below for examinations missed the week before winter break.

Students not able to make up missed exams prior to December 18, 2009 are required to make up the exam(s) with Mr. Eversole, Principal, on Monday, January 4, 2010. Students must report to the main office on January 4, 2010 at 8 a.m. to complete any missed exam(s). Mr. Eversole must approve all prearranged absences for those wishing to miss any of the final week of the semester. All prearranged absences must be requested a minimum of two weeks before the absence. Please make every effort to complete final exams at the appointed times in December.
