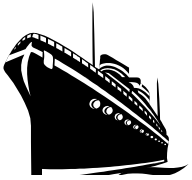
PHS Media Center Launches Monthly Book Club



BY SID VELLUM
The Potty Press

FORT COLLINS—Starting Tuesday, September 30th, the Poudre High School Media Center will be launching its first monthly book club, an endeavor which was originally proposed by student Sayde Camacho. "I like to read a lot and I thought it would be fun to start a book club.

When Ms. Brakhage said she'd supply the pizza and soda, and I could pick the book, it was a done deal."

Students are invited to join at any time throughout the year. The catch is this: To attend the first book club on September 30th, you need to have read the selected book, which, for the month of September is The Hollow Kingdom by Claire B. Dunkle. (The Media Center has five copies which are circulating as quickly as possible). Then, the students at the meeting will select the book for October's book club.

So come on Tuesday September 30th from 3:30—5:00 and eat pizza, guzzle soda, and soak in the shared love of reading!
